TREAT yourself to a glorious short sea trip as you travel between Pacific Coast cities. This Company, operating a splendid fleet of coastwise liners, affords unusually fine service between Seattle, Victoria, Portland, San Francisco, Los Angeles and San Diego with regular sailings at frequent intervals. If you live in the East and are coming to the Coast, include one of these delightful short ocean voyages in your itinerary. It costs no more, and your railroad agent will be glad to do it for the asking. We would be glad to send you attractive illustrated literature.
